

How to create PuTTY traces

1. Start PuTTY tool (open source telnet client) by clicking
2. PuTTY starts in the "Session" category view. Specify the destination you want to connect to to
 - a. enter IP address of your gateway
 - b. Set Port to 7660
 - c. Connection type "Telnet"
 - d. Then click in the category tree on the left side the sub-category "Logging"

3. In "Logging" sub category view
 - a. Set Session logging to "All session output"
 - b. Define a location for the .log file to be stored
 - c. Start Session by clicking "Open"

